Computing and the Internet have transformed – and will continue to transform – society with a speed and in a scale that is rare in the history of mankind.

“Contemporary Issues in Computing” will explore how computing affects everyone, how the Internet has changed how societies and individuals function, and what the implications are for the future.

Course Topics
- The Internet
- Privacy and Security
- Intellectual Property & Ethics
- Social Networking
- Gaming for Fun & Learning
- Digital Divide
- Transformation of Commerce
- History of Computing
- Limits and Future of Computing

For more information visit http://cs4edu.cs.purdue.edu/courses